

Cottage Vacation Rental in Florence – Villetta

A cottage for rent in Florence, Italy for your vacation accommodation

Location: Set on a magnificent estate in the hills overlooking the Arno Valley, this cottage vacation rental is wonderful, intimate, peaceful and private. It makes a perfect setting both for sightseeing and for a romantic honeymoon.

Apartment: This vacation cottage sleeps two to four. It has been fully restored and retains its original charm without compromising on the mod cons. Wooden beams, terracotta floors and large French windows give it a personality of its own. .

Garden: Villetta has an enclosed stonewalled garden which offers complete privacy. We enjoyed relaxing and dining there, surrounded by the greenery of the forest and looking out on spectacular views of the surrounding hills dotted with villas, hamlets and medieval villages. The garden is certainly well cared for. There's also a well-maintained outdoor pool and deckchairs to lounge in.

Furniture: This Florence vacation cottage is furnished fully in typical Tuscan style, and the furniture is of very high standard. The floral prints of the curtains match the bed linen and the cushion covers, and offset the rich cream of the sofa sets. Eye-catching flower arrangements and bright rugs add color to the rooms.

Bedrooms: There's a separate spacious living room and a library as well in this lovely cottage. In the living room, there is a pullout sofa-bed, complete with proper mattress, which can be used as a bed at night. A large double bedroom has an additional single bed.

Bathrooms: The bathroom has a tub with shower and is separate from the bedroom, therefore it can be accessed from the living room also.

Kitchen: The kitchen is fully equipped and large. If you so desire, you can eat in kitchen itself.

Amenities: Villetta, a cottage rent in Florence, is accessible by public transport, and is close to town. It comes with many perks. These include deckchairs, heating, parking facilities, a barbecue, washing machine, dishwasher, freezer, DVD, microwave oven, satellite TV, telephone, Internet connectivity, highchair and linen. Maid service and those of a cook are also available – a big plus.

Problems/Bonuses: Villetta is a perfect vacation cottage for exploring the region of Tuscany and the magic of Florence. The cottage is close to all major highways. From here, it is just 20mins to Montecatini; 40 mins to Pisa/Lucca / Siena/ Monteriggione/ Bologna and 60 mins to Forte Dei Marmi/ Volterra / San Gimignano/ Arezzo. There are wonderful walks in the forest, and the cobbled roads take you over the hills, with nothing in sight other than an occasional farmhouse or monastery. The more energetic have horse-riding, cycling, tennis, jet skiing, and swimming to choose from. There's a sports complex within easy reach too.

Caruso's villa is close by, and is the venue of various concerts. Its spectacular gardens are a must-see for tourists. Visit the Etruscan ruins nearby, explore the local medieval villages and markets and pick up an antique or two.

Enjoy dining out at local restaurants of very high standard locally, and go to town on a shopping spree.

Or merely stay put at the cottage, sip a glass of homemade wine made from homegrown grapes, and relax. Florencevillas also organizes catering classes, tailored to meet individual requirements and levels of proficiency. It was a fabulous experience for us, being taught to cook by such excellent chefs. We can cook up a taste of our holiday any time now.

Agency/Representative/Price: A holiday vacation at Viletta is priced differently during different seasons. During the "low" season, it costs 155 Euro daily and 800 Euro per week.

During the "high" season, the prices are 175 Euro per day and 900 per week. Minimum stay required is three days.

Recommendation: We had a wonderful time at this charming cottage for rent. It was a perfect honeymoon, in beautiful surroundings. The wine and extra virgin olive oil was excellent. Thank you! We have no hesitation in recommending a stay at Villetta to others.
