Castello Buondelmonti - Tinaio

CASTELLO BUONDELMONTI-TINAIO It is absolutely interesting and intriguing to know the great history behind the Tinaio apartment in the Castello Buondelmonti! One of the many suites of the great-great castle, which has roots dating back to the ancient Rome, the Tinaio apartment is a great location for all travel enthusiasts! Its fabulous décor and amazing comfort factor are some of its highlights! One of the four apartments of Buondelmonti, which was named by the then-counts, Miari Pelli Fabbroni, it now has all 19th century enticements to hook you up. The entire stretch of land surrounding the castle has fresh vineyards, which has constantly produced wine variety, that was similar to the 'Bordeaux' type. Such is the hype of this historical apartment - hence your stay here is assured to be a sophisticated one, and not merely a monotonous one. This apartment is completely immersed with the green countryside in the Chianti hills, in a small village called San Polo! This century old tourist house is topped latest amenities and is tastefully furnished to taste every modern day visitor. A charming dwelling house, the Tinaio apartment has a living room, adjoined by a kitchen area that is well equipped with an oven, microwave oven, American coffee machine, 5 gas rings, and a dishwasher. There is one double bedroom with a matrimonial bed and an en suite bathroom attached in it; next is a single bedroom with a capacity of sleeping a single person. The color of the bed spread and the paint of the walls create an enticing outlook altogether! The wooden beam ceilings and the old fashioned furnishings are some of the few adornments. Spreading an air of romanticism is the garden terrace that is unblemished with potted plants. This gives you a bird's eye view of the surrounding Tuscan landscape that is completely green and lush. This quaint little apartment is built to sleep up to three people. Inside activities and nearby wonders! Also forget not to indulge in the restaurant that is inside the castle. The pool and the garden area are for the exclusive use of the guests. Also, just 20 kms distance is the Florence airport! Nestled along with the San Polo village are the highways, restaurants, rail stations, shopping centers, hospitals, ATMs and grocery stores. The entire apartment has wireless internet connection, for free. Make Tinaio apartment yo
