Apartment Grazie

Apartment Grazie Handed down from four different generations, the Apartment Grazie without doubt has a scent of tradition and history in it. One of the three apartments in the Apartment Rosangela, this rental house in Italy is historically significant. Quite astonishing but true! This apartment was once the wine cellar which has now been converted into a pleasant looking Apartment filled with all amenities. The Michelis family or the villa owners who still stay inside this holiday rental property have first-hand information on the exact history of Apartment Grazia. It is this place that 30 years back witnessed the exact drying process of the white grapes for the production of the unique Vin Santo (Holy Wine). A ground floored abode... Fully furnished, this ground floor apartment has a private entrance offering its inmates complete privacy. In its total 65 Square meters, the owners have amazingly split up rooms to suit all unique needs of the tourists. On entering, there is the living room/dining room that is quite enough for up to four members. Next is the kitchen that is roomy enough with all amenities including of a refrigerator. The one master bedroom is sensually decorated with a wrought iron bed, a beautiful table with a lamp stand and matching curtains and linens. Apart from these, there is a yet another bedroom with two single beds, bathroom with shower functions in it. The Reception in the main entrance is the hotspot or the information center present inside this Italy rental. Originally a spinning mill, you get first hand info about the restaurants, bars, artisans, shops, cooking classes, wine tours, nearby churches, pharmacies, and markets close to the apartment. Give in to all the pleasure that this apartment waits to offer you - get to taste the extra virgin olive oil and taste the genuine wine produced inside the estate. Also make it a point to walk along the stretch of vineyards, sunflower fields, olive and cypress trees that the Apartment Grazia possesses of. Located in Valdichiana, the whole of the apartment is circumscribed by historically crucial places including of the Etruscan town of Cortona, the castle of Montecchio Vesponi and also with other prominent villages of Castiglion Fiorentino and Lucignano. The owners still stay in one of the Apartments, making it more pleasant for you. You get to experience the true bliss
