

Farmhouse Lovas Debbis - San Casciano in Val di Pesa, Florence, Tuscany

Farmhouse Lovas Debbis

A picturesque landscape of lush hills and fields speckled by grazing sheep awaits you as you enter the serene world of the Farmhouse Lovas Debbis. Resting on a hill that slants down into the valley that separates the hills of Paterno and Corzano, this lovely country home in Italy retains its superb traditional features such as terracotta floors, beamed ceilings and internal brick arches, but has been refurbished with modern conveniences to offer you an experience that wonderfully blends old-world charm with modern-day comfort. On the ground floor of the Farmhouse Lovas Debbis there is a spacious living room, a traditionally Tuscan kitchen and dining area well-equipped with amenities such as a refrigerator, gas stove, oven, microwave oven and dishwasher. The kitchen has a huge fireplace, which is reminiscent of olden Tuscany. The property also houses 3 double bedrooms and 3 twin bedrooms, as well 2 bathrooms on the ground floor and 2 bathrooms on the first floor; one of the first floor bathrooms contains a washing machine. Outside, a garden of various plants and shrubs creates a delightful atmosphere that allows you to relax and absorb the tranquil environment that envelopes you here. A pergola and a traditional bread oven add an old-fashioned touch to the idyllic outdoor area. The swimming pool, which is shared with the Casa Fallochio, is the ideal place for unwinding and enjoying enchanting views of the vibrant landscape that surrounds you.
